This tour of Holland & the internationally acclaimed Arnhem Poppenhuisstad (dollhouse show) has the added benefit of spending a day in the medieval city of Bruges, Belgium, considered by many, the most beautiful city in the world! Join us as we travel there with kindred spirits. As you may have heard, our popular tours are limited in size – making them uniquely special – customized for small group travel, with the kind of attention to your individualized comfort that our travelers have come to expect....and deserve. To assure your place on our 2010 travel adventure, please mail your deposit today – tours are filled in the order that each deposit is received. If tour capacity is reached in advance of our deposit deadline, as it often is, no more space will be available.

If for any reason we should not meet the minimum required for travel, all deposit checks will be returned and the trip will be postponed. We have once again reserved Martin as our Coach Driver/Guide. Please enclose your check with this form, fill out both sides of the page. Please contact Molly Cromwell with any questions or to let me know that you intend to join me. 703.978.5353
